The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and contains six measures of whole rests. The lower staff is also a treble clef with the same key signature and contains a continuous melodic line of eighth and sixteenth notes across six measures.

The second system of musical notation also consists of two staves. The upper staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two sharps and contains two measures of whole rests. The lower staff is also a treble clef with the same key signature and contains a melodic line of eighth and sixteenth notes across two measures, ending with a double bar line.
